MISSION MOMENT

There was another serious terrorist attack in the capital city of Ouagadougou on Sunday night August 13. This attack was within 200 meters of where the previous attack of January 2016 happened. The primary target was a restaurant, and apparently 20 people were killed, and a dozen injured, including some Canadians. We were in the area just hours before. Our reason for being in the city was to welcome our son Martin, and his wife Christy and our granddaughter Kaitlyn here for a brief visit! Also, thank you for continuing to pray for Larba (one of our workers). He seems to have few obvious effects of the encephalitis. Thank you so much for praying for rain for the farm area and campus. Please continue to pray... the crops had looked good but are now starting to shrivel.

Thanks for keeping is in your prayers!

-Bill and Joy Stregger
